

The UK – EU Trade and Cooperation Agreement has been in place since 1 January. Rules for doing business with Europe have changed, and we all need to make changes to keep business moving. While the deal with the EU means zero tariffs and zero quotas for European/British goods, businesses still need to adapt to changes to trade and customs procedures, and changes to travel.

Join us and our panel of experts for Tea with Reason which will be held on 11 February between 9.30-11am online.

We will answer questions on customs, new border processes for people and goods, and how to qualify for zero-free tariffs.

Timeline of the event:

9:30-9:35 Welcome by Tiffany Sadler, UK Ambassador to Slovenia

9:35-9:45 Introduction to the UK-EU Trade and Cooperation Agreement
Flavia Munteanu, Her Majesty's Revenue & Customs

9:45-11:00 Q & A Session

Anka Pogačnik, Manager of Tax and Law Services, Ernst & Young

Ana Maček, department for origin of goods, FURS

Gorazd Kotnik, department for customs procedures, FURS

moderated by Barbara Uranjek, CEO, British-Slovenian Chamber of Commerce

We are encouraging you to send us your questions and dilemmas ahead in our registration form.

Registration is mandatory for all, please register below. The event will be held in English.

Register here