

---

Marc W. van Rijnsoever

President/Member of the Board (2018 – 2021), Slovenian Dutch Business Platform (SDBP) <https://sdbpgroup.com/>. The SDBP was established on 31 July 2003. After its incorporation, the goal of the SDBP was to create a business linked networking social platform for Dutch & Slovenian 'orientated' and international interested business people living in Slovenia and the Netherlands. The SDBP encourages sharing knowledge, developing skills and competences,. The members of the SDBP regularly discuss experiences and business opportunities. The SDBP highly values the new circular economy and support ideas of (young) professionals and companies entering the (international) business environment.

Marc is an attorney-at-law / managing partner at KienhuisHoving Lawyers and Notaries (<https://www.kienhuishoving.com/en/> ). He specialises in international commercial contracts as well as joint ventures and partnerships. Marc assists multiple Slovenian clients actively doing business in the Netherlands. Marc is admitted to the Dutch Bar and regarded as an solution driven all-round corporate lawyer. After obtaining Master degrees in both Dutch law (University of Utrecht) and Tax law (University of Amsterdam), Marc worked first in the national and international tax advisory practice within a Big4 firm. He subsequently practised law at a large multidisciplinary law firm within the transaction and corporate practice. During his career, Marc spent 7 years working in Slovenia and is also fluent in the Slovenian language. Marc is a guest lecturer at the Faculty of Law, Economics and Governance (of the University of Utrecht.

=