- 10 vehicles on BiH exit, no long delays.
- 20 vehicles at the terminal that are waiting for veterinary or phytosanitary checks.

The Council of Ministers of Bosnia and Herzegovina has decided to open the borders of BiH with Croatia, Serbia and Montenegro, without restrictions or special conditions. Foreign citizens can enter BiH only for business purposes (an invitation from a legal entity) and with a negative corona test result that is 48-hours old. The airports in Sarajevo, Tuzla and Mostar is open for international traffic with certain protocols set in place.

CROATIA

- Bregana and Macelj border crossing: no delays on entry and exit.
- Bajakovo border crossing: waiting time on entry is 2 hours and there on exit it is 1 hour.
- Slavonski Šamac border crossing: waiting time on entry is 1 hour and there are no delays on exit.

Due to a traffic accident on A3 motorway Bregana-Lipovac, on the 153. km between junctions Okučani and Nova Gradiška, direction Lipovac, there is one-lane traffic only.

There is traffic congestion and 1 km long waiting line on Zagreb detour, junction Ivanja Reka, direction Zagreb.

Roadworks in progress: A1 Zagreb-Split-Ploče motorway, one lane is free only at Donja Zdenčina junction in both directions. Between Bristovac and Čelinka tunnels in direction Dubrovnik one lane is free only with 60 km/h speed limit.

On A3 Zagreb detour road, due to roadworks at Sava bridge, after the Ivanja Reka junction, direction Bregana, the lanes are reduced in each direction (driving speed limit of 40 km/h).

Roadworks until June 1, and complete traffic ban on the DC1 state road Karlovačka cesta, in Blato, Zagreb detour road A3 exit, at Lučko junction, direction Blata/Lučko, and Blata/Lučko access to Adriatic road, city direction.

Traffic is suspended till June 9, in both directions A3 Bregana-Lipovac motorway, at the entrance of Velika Kopanica junction, detour: Sredanci and Babina Greda junctions;

Due to roadworks on the motorway at Goričan, traffic is diverted to Goričan junction and detour towards old Goričan border crossing (detour Goričan junction ŽC2026-DC3-old Goričan border crossing). At Gunja border crossing, there is a traffic ban on freight vehicles and buses (the bridge is not stable).

SLOVENIA

SLO-CRO border crossing :

- Obrežje: freight vehicles waiting for 1 hour on exit, and passenger vehicles are waiting for 30 minutes on both entry and exit.
- Gruškovje: no delays.

ITA-SLO border crossing:

- As of April 19, arranging freight vehicle convoys is no longer required to enter CRO at Obrežje border crossing nor travelling in convoys through CRO. Subsequently, the Slovenian police has stopped arranging convoys at checkpoints with Italy (Ferneti and Italy).

SLO-HUN border crossing :

- An agreement has been reached regarding the passengers crossing SLO-HUN borders. It is the second country after Croatia, where SLO borders are fully open.

SLO-AUT border crossing :

- The truck flow is normal, but on entry, they need to have full fuel tanks and must not stop anywhere in Austria.

On Dolenjska A2 motorway Ljubljana-Obrežje, at access Mokrice, direction Obrežje, there is 1 km 400m long waiting line

As of June 1, the freight vehicle restrictions on Sundays and holidays are back on for trucks whose weight exceeds 7.5 tons.

Roadworks still in progress at the Golovec tunnel, Ljubljana and Dolenjska motorway at Trebnja. Gorenjska motorway Podtabor exit is closed from Jesenica towards Tržič – the detour is arranged.

When crossing the border, all drivers need to have on them a Permit for working in the international transport – this document is used as a proof and no quarantine is needed in that case.

As from this weekend, a 14-day quarantine has been reintroduced for all passengers returning to SLO from countries that are still characterized by poor epidemiological status with the exception of drivers with permits. All other cases are to be handled individually.

A new regulation applies to the return of drivers from Serbia and Bosnia and Herzegovina to Slovenia: all those who have not been out of Slovenia for more than 14 days do not have to be quarantined upon returning (the condition is that the driver has a place of residency in SLO). Additionally, it is no longer possible to transit only with authorization to another state to get a truck – more on the link <https://www.uradni-list.si/glasilo-uradni-list-rs/vsebina/2020-01-1031/odlok-o-odrejanju-in-izvajanju-ukrepov-povezanih-s-preprecevanjem-sirjenja-covid-19-na-mejnih-prehodih-na-zunanji-meji-in-na-kontrolnih-tockah-na-notranjih-mejah-republike-slovenije>

Regarding passenger vehicles, as of May 20, Slovenia has opened its traffic to Croatian citizens with no restrictions.
