

The Round Table

OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES IN INDIA: What to expect from the EU-India Free Trade Agreement?

Are you planning to enter or expand in Indian market?

Join the Round table on 18th of July 2013 at 1.30 pm at the Faculty of Economics and be prepared for new opportunities generated by the nearly concluded EU-India Free Trade Agreement.

We will discuss the opportunities and challenges in one of the fastest growing markets with representatives of leading Slovenian firms that have successfully entered Indian market, representatives of diplomacy and European Commission, agencies and associations, professors and the young generation of students. The Round table event aims at bringing the new insights that could be exploited by EU-India business community and policy-makers.

The Round table is organised as a part of European Jean Monnet project Understanding the potential of the EU-India Free Trade Agreement within the Summer school at the Faculty of Economic in Ljubljana.
